

Tiffany Morgan
Owner, Veteran

YOUR WEAPON IS YOUR MIND

Provides healthcare professionals and organizations tools and skills to effectively work with service members, veterans, and their families (SMVF)

MILITARY CULTURAL COMPETENCY TRAINING

Audience

Healthcare professionals, organizations that work with the SMVF population, or individuals who would like to start working with the men and women who have given so much.

Results

Participants gain insight into the SMVF community and how to better connect with them from the perspective of a mental healthcare professional and a veteran.

“I would highly recommend Tiffany Morgan and Your Weapon is Your Mind! It is our ethical responsibility as mental health professionals to seek education on populations we may serve, and Tiffany’s training on military culture helped me become much more confident in this area.”

~Denise Killmer Magoto, LPC, LAC

Content-rich presentation that inspires participants to work competently and ethically with service members, veterans, and their families

For individuals and organization who are already working with the SMVF population:

- Are you feeling frustrated by veterans telling you that you wouldn't understand so you can't help?
- Are you curious to understand cultural norms within the SMVF community?
- Are you and your staff in need of a "refresher"?

For individuals and organization who want to start working with the SMVF population:

- Are you interested in learning more about military culture and how it relates to your work?
- Are you wanting to better understand the strengths and vulnerabilities of this population?
- Are you concerned about managing risk in this population?

If you answered 'yes' to any of these questions, then it is time to bring in an industry expert to address these issues.

Topics include:

- Warrior Ethos
- Moral Injury
- Transition Stress
- Posttraumatic Growth
- Local and National Resources
- Additional Topics Relevant to the SMVF Community
